Ways to
Be a
Bruin
BROWNIE 2026

Dear Reader,

Each school year brings new goals and reasons to celebrate what it means to be a Bruin. Our community continues to grow in strength, spirit, and character. This year has been full of accomplishments, and challenges, that show who we are, how we work together, and how we represent our school with pride.

We took home a Rivalry Day vict'ry for the fourth year in a row, a reflection of our athletes' teamwork and dedication. The energy on the field, the enthusiasm in the stands, and the support from teachers and students showed our unity as a school. Every cheer, practice, and moment of encouragement reminded us that being a Bruin means showing determination and respect, whether competing, studying, or celebrating.

There are many ways to be a Bruin. It means trying your best in class, participating in clubs, supporting others, and carrying our values wherever you go. It means showing kindness, leadership, and effort everyday. From athletes and artists to volunteers and scientists, every student, staff, and faculty member contributes to our school.

As editor, I am proud to help share those stories through this yearbook. Each page reflects the dedication, creativity, and enthusiasm that make our school unique. Together, we have built a community where all students belong and each Bruin leaves a lasting mark.

With love,
Zola Pfeifer-Thomas

Dedication
MEGAN FORD

"Ms. Ford was my first grade teacher in 1991, and I still remember being called to her carpet as 'friends.' She created an environment of warmth and trust that helped us understand our potential and love learning. We were so lucky to have her in our lives."

– Catherine (Rosen) Wilhoit '03

Walking into Megan's first-grade classroom was like reading a sublime poem. The structure, themes, tone, emotional impact, and take-away messages melded in the most effective ways. To read the room was like taking in remarkably composed prose—truly inspiring, subtle, and intentional. Let me attempt to explain.

First were the carefully designed physical spaces within Megan's classroom. They were aesthetically beautiful in a minimalist way—quiet and almost lyrical, reflecting outstanding knowledge of child development. The room easily drew students in (or, for that matter, anyone who stepped into the space) and was always ready for fun and significant learning opportunities.

Next were the rhythmic and engaging academic experiences. Megan executed them with expertise and depth. Her lessons were designed with great care, creativity, and wisdom; they were consistently captivating and compelling. Her young students loved to learn and play and were fully engaged.

As for the tone of the room, it was serene and relaxed, but with a strong undercurrent of purpose—a dance of activity that was almost lyrical. It was constant to hear the hum of children collaborating, problem-solving, and laughing. One wanted to stay, observe, and immerse oneself in the vibe of Megan's unique learning environment.

Layered over all was an emotional undercurrent of warmth and safety. The message to her first graders was clear: all were valued and included.

Indeed, this room made the observer think. Like a poem, it evoked a wide range of emotions and expressed ideas in myriad ways. It engaged everyone in the space with questions and inspired them to wonder—all in a harmonious fashion. What a delight. What a privilege to experience. Megan Ford's space was one that could only have been cultivated by the finest poet—or, in this case, gifted educator teacher.

– Ann Starer

Celebrating the ABCs of Megan Ford

Mennette San Lee & Ruthie Kalvar '85

We celebrate our colleague Megan Ford as an ANCHOR in the Admission Office who has always offered BOLD visions for CENTERING the DEVELOPMENTAL needs of children. Ever EAGER to contribute anywhere she is needed, Megan demonstrates the FOUNDATIONAL value of showing up with GRACE and always HONORING the tenets of progressive education.

Megan believes that students are INQUISITIVE learners and she supports their JOYFUL curiosity through KIND guidance LEADING with MINDFUL energy and a NURTURING spirit. She approaches every interaction with OPENNESS and PASSION–modeling for all of us the QUIET strength that true RESPECT requires. She is STEADFAST in her belief that children deserve to be seen, heard, and celebrated for their TRULY UNIQUE gifts. A VENERABLE professional in every sense, she brings WARMTH to every room she enters–and yes, a little XTRA magic too! And, after 40 years, she leaves a legacy–one that YIELDS toward children, always–and carries forward the ZEAL that sparked it all.

"On a Zoom call welcoming new Park parents and students into the Park community, I was pleasantly surprised to see Ms. Ford, the person who, nearly 25 years ago, welcomed four-year-old Eric and his parents to the same community. A full circle moment that epitomizes Ms. Ford's compassion, dedication, character, and love for her work and her community. Like so many others, I attribute many of my most cherished memories from Park to Ms. Ford's intuitive sense of community and camaraderie. To Ms. Ford, I wish the very best for all the exciting journeys and adventures that lie in her next chapter! Strive On!"

FOR ADDRESS

Winter Solstice

Before winter break, the fifth grade students performed for the annual Winter Solstice, the shortest day and longest night of 2025 in the Northern Hemisphere. Drawing inspiration from the Ancestral Puebloan people of the American Southwest, students spent months developing the choreography and studying their character and story.

BRUIN NIGHT

Both the Boys' and Girls' Varsity Basketball Teams brought home wins on Bruin Night against the Jemicy School. The Girls' team won 63–14 and the Boys' team finished with a 73–32 victory. Students filled the stands in winter and ski gear to cheer on the Bruins!

THE PAR

PARK SENIORS
K SCHOOL

Dear Class of 2026,

It's been an immense joy to get to know you these past two, three, and four years in the Upper School. Always clever, charismatic, and talented, you've become even kinder, more inclusive, more collaborative and more comfortable building from and celebrating each other's many strengths. The ninth grade cliques that we once worried about no longer dominate your decision-making and participation. One of our favorite memories of your high school experience will be you sitting in assigned pairs during the senior retreat, ruminating over Park, life, and what lies ahead with someone you don't necessarily hang out with every day–it felt like you would have gone on talking for hours if we hadn't had to move on. In your senior year, the wealth of your diverse talents has been on full display: in academics, athletics, the arts, and beyond, you've excelled! If anything, we hope you take from this four year lesson that there is always something to learn from the stranger sitting next to you and, although sometimes living in a community is uncomfortable, we are stronger together.

In the course of these four years, you have grown into a class that...

...started new clubs, created and performed in the theater and arts programs, excelled on JV and Varsity teams, and dove deep into individual pursuits. The senior showcase revealed how many of you view the world through an artist's lens, and we found your vision breathtaking!

...had talent! The tenth grade talent show demonstrated the breadth of your skills and was a major step in you coming together as a grade. You cheered each other on for acts like a vocal duet, piano solo, backflips, a rap on Minecraft sweeper, and more!

...led with aplomb. Beginning in your junior year, you stepped up, working tirelessly to create the yearbook, hammer out Postscript, represent your peers on student council, and captain teams to championships. As seniors, you worked together to put together orientation for the 9th graders and help make your own retreat fun and meaningful.

...showed school spirit. The division over your Junior Day theme melted away once the class voted to transform the humanities and science hallways into a jungle, and all hands were on deck the night before to decorate and eat pizza.

...helped glue the community together. Your people skills brighten the halls, make us more connected, and have been felt by even the youngest in our community.

...made us laugh! You've always been able to see the humor in absurdity, and even when you complain, you do it with wit. You've become a class that laughs together with joy and acceptance.

Of course there are more accomplishments than could be included here. Know that each of your individual personalities and gifts have helped shape the leaders that you are. As you all go to strive on at new places and endeavors, remember the lessons learned from each other. We'll certainly remember what you've taught us! We're so proud of you!

Love,

Grace and Lubna

I'm lucky to have made as many connections as I have within my few years attending Park and I'm deeply appreciative for each and every one of those people who have been a massive influence to my life. I'll never stop thinking about those who gave me relentless support, unconditional kindness, and never hesitated to lend a hand. I love you guys and I'll never forget you as I take the massive dive into pursuing art fulltime. Thanks for sticking by me through it all.

Bella - Aim for the Stars

To our incredible daughter Bella, our hearts are full of pride for all that you have accomplished. The world is lucky to have someone as kind, passionate, and as smart as you are. Remember that you can achieve anything you set your mind to, just believe in yourself, follow your dreams and take risks. The world is yours to conquer, and we are here to support you every step of the way. Congratulations, our beautiful graduate!

Max Bronstein

"Hooray, yes hooray, it's graduation day and Maxie is now on the move; he's been at Park for seven years having now sung just countless tunes. From Mandarin to chemistry, now Into the Woods he goes; there was tennis, and Goldsoundz, girls and more girls, and he still found time to sell shoes. It could not have been easy, no doubt made him queasy with old parents like "Señor" and "Cookie"; we managed to keep pace - with Maxie's charm and his grace - as we wait with suspense - to send the 6'2" prince - with 12 years now past - back to the 24th state - to Wash U new horizons - but don't be surprised - if when you arrive to find Cookie and Señor your roommates!" - Mom and Dad

"Max, what I love most about you is your great disposition and your wonderful way with people. I always enjoy being around you and we have great conversations together. You are mature beyond your years. You're very grounded and a wonderful loving young man" - Nana

"To our loved and respected grandson Max, what a respectful and ambitious young man you have become. We are so proud of you as a person and our grandson. May happiness and success follow you for the rest of your life. With much love." - Grammies and Grampies

"Hey Maxie!!! From a little cowboy and ASMR artist to a talented singer/musician and king on the court We have had some incredibly fun times and made the best memories. So grateful to be a part of your journey so far and can't wait to see what's next! We love you." - The Brummer's "Go Bears!!!"

"Max, being your uncle is an incredibly difficult job. First, you are seven inches taller than me. It's intimidating. Second, you have a great head of hair. Third, every time we discuss anything my arguments fall apart under your intellectual scrutiny. And worst of all, you are always kind, considerate and respectful to me, which is particularly galling to me because I still act like a rebellious teenager" -uncle Dave

JAVED KING
From the day you were born, we knew you were special. You carry so many gifts — your music, your athleticism, and that brilliant mind that could master even the most complex, multi-sided Rubik's cubes. Your past has shaped you, not limited you. Walk boldly into a future that is wide open and undeniably yours. We believe in you — in your heart, your courage, and your tomorrow. Your life is yours. Dream big and live each day to the fullest.
Love, Mom, Dad, Arshan and your whole family

Congratulations Sam! We are so very proud of you. Watching you grow, learn, and follow your unique path has been such a blessing. Pirate, trash police, Buddhist, brother, explorer, scuba diver, rockstar, surfer, skater, boater, boarder, driver, historian, artist, foodie, baseball player, world traveler, writer... your capacity is endless! Your curious and independent nature will serve you well in the world. We believe in you 100% and know you will succeed at whatever you choose. And while this graduation marks the end of one chapter, it also kicks off a new one full of so many possibilities. Wherever you find yourself, in triumph or defeat, in joy or pain, know that you always have our love and support. "May the road rise up to meet you, may the wind be always at your back, and may the sun shine warm upon your face." Love, Mom & Dad

Sam, thank you for being such a good brother and leading me through all the stuff I have done.
